

Qualities of a Man of God

Rate yourself on a scale from 1 – 5 on whether these qualities are a personal strength or weakness (1 being a weakness, 5 being a strength).

Personal Spirituality

Strong and consistent relationship with God
Humility - Submissive - a learners spirit- a great follower - Accepts critics well
Accepts responsibility for sin
Self aware (sees blind spots)
Gentleness
Balanced avoids extremes
Deep Convictions
Great listener
Full of joy
Servant to others
Encouraging
Personally evangelistic
Passionate – “fire in the belly”
Knows Bible Well
Willing to go anywhere, do anything and give up everything
Urgent about souls and situations

Leadership Qualities

Courage - willing to take risk and confront difficult situations and people
Able to study the bible with non-Christians effectively
Able to turn a weak Christian
Able to lead a small group effectively
Raising up leaders
Good at planning Events
Effective in discipling others (Helping people grow and get unstuck)
Effectively uses technology in ministry
Delegation
Public Speaking
Sees the good in people and in situations when all is bleak
Ability to persuade others
Listens to the people he leads but is more led by God and His will (doesn't let the people lead him)

Character

Disciplined
Not critical, sarcastic or negative – not a bully
Personal integrity
Inspirational / Visionary
Multiplying mindset
Willing to think out of the box - coming up with new ideas

Hard worker – standard of excellence in everything
Doesn't procrastinate
Responsible in personal life - Finances, Household, etc.

Relational

Deep love for people
Emotionally sensitive
Great friend - pulling people in emotionally
Cares for the whole person
Builds great relationships with those over him in the Lord as well as peers

Resilience

Ability to fail and get back up
Embracing spiritual suffering
Faithful in difficult situations
God and Cross focused - process everything through the Cross and the Word of God
Not overwhelmed easily